

The Lehman College Art Department Lecture Series Presents:

Michael Ferris Jr.

Wednesday, February 29th, 5PM
Lehman College Art Gallery, Rotunda

Michael Ferris Jr. was born in Chicago, Illinois in 1969. He currently lives and works in Bronx, New York. Ferris received his B.F.A from the Kansas City Art Institute in 1991 and his M.F.A from Indiana University-Bloomington in 1996. Ferris has had one person shows at ATM Gallery in New York City, Packer Schopf Gallery in Chicago, IL and most recently George Adams Gallery in New York City. In November 2010 Michael had a solo show of drawings and sculptures at George Adams Gallery in New York.

Ferris has shown his work at numerous venues including the de Young Museum in San Francisco, CA; Queens Museum, Flushing, NY; Stux Gallery, New York City; Illinois State Museum, Springfield, IL and The Islip Museum of Art, Islip, NY.

Ferris has received many grants and awards including Roswell Artist-in-Residence, Roswell, NM; Emerging Artist Grant through the ACC, New York City; George Sugarman Foundation Grant, Navato, CA; Marie Walsh Sharpe Space Program, New York City; Bronx Council for the Arts (BRIO) Grant in Sculpture, Bronx, NY, New York Foundation for the Arts (NYFA) Fellowship in Sculpture, New York City and a fellowship/residency at Sculpture Space in Utica, New York; SPARC Grant, Bronx Council on the Arts and Arts Fund Grant, Bronx Council on the Arts.